

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impair digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

SPECIAL RAILROAD RATES TO GREAT PACIFIC EXPOSITION

People visiting the Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition this year will have unusual opportunities to visit not only Seattle, the headquarters of the exposition, but also other cities of the coast. Very low rates have been made by the railroads for the exposition trip via California direct route points, either on the going or on the return trip, with unrestricted stop-over privileges.

This arrangement is particularly for the benefit of the many going to the exposition who will desire to include in their itineraries visits to other Pacific coast cities; for those making the trip for the first time, it will be the opportunity for fulfillment of a long cherished intention to see with their own eyes the land they have read so much about as the region where nature has bestowed her most lavish gifts.

From points in Arizona and New Mexico tickets will be sold May 25 to September 30 inclusive, limit three months from sale date, but not later than October 31.

The fare from Las Vegas, both ways via California, is $55. Tickets will not require validation and will be good for stop-over privileges within limit at any intermediate point on going or return trip.

BRIEFLY TOLD—

Ira Thorn has been appointed night yardmaster at Clovis.

P. R. Buffham will assume his duties as ice inspector for the Santa Fe at Clovis soon.

H. E. Roy, a railroad contractor, was a south bound passenger for the Duke city last evening.

Morrel-Law, of the Santa Fe Central, was ticketed to Albuquerque from Chicago on No. 9 last evening.

Engineer Barney Archibald, of this city, has been continuously in the employ of the Santa Fe Railway company for the past thirty years. And yet he is neither asking or expecting a pension.

G. E. Rex, a big tie and timber contractor of Chicago, was traveling on a pass to Belen last evening.

O. B. Bowers, blacksmith foreman at the Clovis shops, is expecting his family from Amarillo, this week.

J. Summers, a passenger and ticket agent for the Mexican Central, went south through Las Vegas last evening.

Superintendent S. E. Busser, of the Santa Fe reading rooms, was a visitor at the Alvarado hotel in Albuquerque.

L. E. Curtwright, who is now stationed at La Junta as a special watch dog for the Santa Fe, is in Las Vegas today, courting.

Joseph H. Callahan, who was married here yesterday to Miss Nellie Littrell of Raton, is a brakeman running out of that city.

Trainmaster Ashcroft passed through Clovis on his way to Newton, Kas., where he was called on account of the death of his mother-in-law.

Dr. C. B. Cunningham, a surgeon on the Santa Fe Coast lines, went south on No. 7 last evening from a trip to Chicago and other places of lesser note.

Mrs. W. J. Irwin and family left Raton for Clovis, where they will join Mr. Irwin, night roundhouse foreman of the Santa Fe at that place.

EXECUTIVE MANSION AT SANTA FE OPENED SOON

Accompanying a two-column portrait of a handsome young woman, the following appeared in the Denver Post of Tuesday evening:

Miss Maud Madden of Oakland, Cal., niece of Governor Curry of New Mexico. Miss Madden will soon remove to Santa Fe, where she will become the "first lady of New Mexico," by virtue of her taking charge of the new executive mansion building at that place for Governor Curry's private residence.

Santa Fe, N. M., May 11.—Probably the finest residence ever constructed in New Mexico is the governor's new mansion, which will be formally opened with a brilliant housewarming on May 25. It is of buff-colored brick, trimmed in white stone, and is of the colonial style of architecture. The mansion adjoins the capitol grounds on the north and faces the south.

The plans for the mansion were drawn by the firm of I. H. and W. M. Rapp, architects, of Trinidad, Colo., and Las Vegas, N. M., and was built under the personal supervision of W. M. Rapp. For the most part convict labor was employed in its construction, all of the rough work and a good part of the skilled labor being performed by prisoners in the territorial penitentiary. The residence is two stories with a large basement, and contains fifteen rooms in all. The mansion cost $25,000, exclusive of its furnishings, on which $10,000 was spent.

Every room is finished in a different color, the wallpaper and furnishings being made to harmonize. The floors are hardwood and the wood-work redwood. Each bedroom has an individual lavatory and bath; neither money nor pains were spared in its construction.

Governor Curry is a widower, and hence the first lady of the territory will be his cousin, Miss Maud Madden, a society belle of Oakland, Cal., who recently arrived in the capital to make it her home during Governor Curry's term of office.

CHURCH DEDICATION IN ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

The church of the Immaculate Conception was dedicated at Albuquerque on Sunday by Bishop J. B. Pitaval of Santa Fe. Large crowds were present and the ceremonies including a procession through the streets in the vicinity of the church, as a public protestation of faith, were most impressive.

Remodeled at a cost of $15,000, the church has a seating capacity in excess of 1,000 persons, and was planned with the idea that it will meet all needs of the congregation for years to come.

The first Immaculate Conception church was begun in 1883 and finished that year under the supervision of Rev. Fede, S. J., who said the first mass in the church on Sunday, July 7, 1883. The stone for the church was hauled from Flagstaff, the Atlantic & Pacific railroad donating the freight.

Since that time the parish has grown to such an extent that a larger church was declared imperative two years ago and plans were made to remodel and enlarge the old church. The members of the congregation contributed liberally and the work of remodeling went forward without a halt.

Jesse Pate Not Dead.

Following information, timely and true, is furnished by the Raton Range:

"Jesse Pate is not dead yet. He is said to be in a sanatorium at Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he frequently goes from here. A friend of his, who recently left here for El Paso, reports to friends here, that Mr. Pate is all right. Pate, usually gets into the newspapers when he leaves home. Last fall he got into many other papers by a story of the Wells-Fargo robbery he gave The Optic. No one seems to know how he happened to be left for dead, but he is alive just the same."

CURE FOLLOWED YEAR OF AGONY

Intense Itching Eczema Drove Him Nearly to Despair—Chief Surgeon of a London Hospital Called It Worst Case He Had Ever Seen—Got Little or No Relief Until

CUTICURA STOPPED HIS UNBEARABLE TORTURE

"About four years ago, in London, I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles and feet. The same, in a few days, was the case with my arms and scalp. I could hardly keep from scratching which, I need hardly say, made it worse. Then large red patches appeared, with inflammation and soreness. After ten days, thousands of small red pimples formed. On becoming dry, these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so and was an out-patient for a month or more, the chief surgeon saying: 'I never saw such a bad case of eczema.' But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I almost gave up in despair. On coming to this country I heard so many accounts of cures by Cuticura. Remedies that I resolved, as a last resource, to give them a trial. This was after suffering agonies for twelve months, and right glad am I that I did so, for I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with a liberal use of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Resolvent Pills and am more than thankful to say that, after using three sets of the Remedies, I was completely cured. I can only add that, should any one be suffering as I did, I hope that they will do as I did, and I am sure of the result."—Henry Searle, 2022 Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 10, 1907.
